you and transfer you to your hotel. Almaty, Kazakhstan's financial and cultural capital, is a picturesque city surrounded by the majestic Trans-Ili Alatau mountains, covered with lush evergreen forests. The city's blend of modern architecture, green avenues, and stunning snow-capped peaks makes it an unforgettable destination. Enjoy your evening exploring Almaty at your leisure.

Start your day with a sightseeing tour of Almaty's central landmarks. Visit the Palace of the President, Republic Square, the Monument of Independence, Astana Square, Abai Square, and the Palace of the Republic. Continue to Panfilov Park, one of the city's oldest parks, and admire the stunning Zenkov Cathedral, one of the world's tallest wooden buildings. Pay tribute at the Memorial of Glory and Eternal Flame, dedicated to those who fought for Kazakhstan's freedom.

In the evening, take a cable car ride to Kok Tobe Hill, the highest point in Almaty at 1,100 meters. Enjoy breathtaking panoramic views of the city, visit the iconic 372-meter-high TV Tower, and explore various attractions and restaurants offering international cuisine.

After breakfast, head to Shymbulak, Almaty's premier ski resort. A world-class gondola ride takes you to the highest point (3,200 meters) in just an hour, offering spectacular views. Even if you're not into skiing or snowboarding, enjoy a variety of activities, including zip-lining, paragliding, and horse riding. Relax at cafes and restaurants, or take in the stunning mountain scenery from observation decks.

In the evening, enjoy a walking tour of Panfilov Promenade, a lively area filled with cafes, small shops, and street musicians. Stroll past the Kazakh Opera &

Ballet Theatre before continuing to Arbat Street, a bustling shopping hub with entertainment and local handicrafts.
